

Matten, Ellen

From: Gayle Koehler [koehler@svsu.edu]
Sent: Tuesday, April 20, 1999 2:57 PM
To: USCodex@dchqexs1.hqnet.usda.gov
Subject: CODEX

Sensitivity: Personal

0420 '99 JUN -4 A9:45

Robert Lake

If there is nothing wrong with genetically engineered food, why is there opposition to a label? We should have the opportunity to know how food is made and what is in it.

Will the US Public have to resort to their own farms in individual cities to prevent poisoning by big business?

Please consider my wish for a label on genetically engineered food.

Gayle Koehler

92N-0139

C5406